

Trail of Squirrels

You might see squirrels run around freely and break a hard walnut. Do not feed them. 9:30-16:30

Mini amusement park

You can enjoy Merry-go-round, teacup, Shinkansen, dummy horse. 9:30-16:45(tickets sold by 16:35)

Green house of tropical birds

Let's find Guineafowls and Knysna Turacos which is hiding behind the leaves of vine plants, Dracaena, and Tropical plants like Palm trees. 9:30-16:30

Doushinkyō

Carving Park

Asian Elephant

Popular elephant, Hanako came from Thai land in 1949 when she was two years old. She is an elephant that has the longest breeding period in Japan. She moved from Ueno to Inokashira in 1954.

Amur Cat

It came to our zoo in 2000 in commemoration of the 10th friendship anniversary of Tokyo and Seoul City. It has been bred well since then.

Forest of wild birds

The Japanese Bird House has many different kinds of birds on exhibit, and it is best suited for studying before bird watching. Please compare the variety of different colored feathers at Copper-Pheasant-House.

Museum

Spaces for exhibits, lectures, and origami classes. There are patio and lease meeting rooms. 9:30-16:30

Children's Play Area

(Swing park)

Lakeside Park

Aquatic Life House

There are exhibits on comparison of the Inokashira pond in old times and today, and different aspects of the fish along the river focused mainly on Japanese freshwater organisms. 9:30-16:45

Metropolitan bitterling

It is Japan's freshwater fish which was designated as a protected species in 1974. It is in danger of extinction nowadays.

Hooded Crane

It is one of the endangered species. The ones succeed in breeding in Japan are only in three places including our zoo.

Mandarin Duck

Male winter plumage is especially beautiful, and there are shapes like the leaf of Ginkgo.

Middle Gate Entrance

Fennec

Canine that lives in Sahara desert. Their big ears help diffusing the heat. It is the fox that appears in 'Prince in the star'.

Guinea pig's petting zoo

We will teach you the correct way to hold. Please feel the guinea pig's heart beat and warmth. 10:00-12:00, 13:00-15:00

Nursing room and First aid is in the administration office.
Three smoking areas in the main park; one in the subdivided park
We have several wheelchairs prepared.